

FARM/ART DTour MAP 2015

FERMENTATION
FEST
HEADQUARTERS
REEDSBURG AREA CHAMBER OF COMMERCE
240 RAILROAD ST.

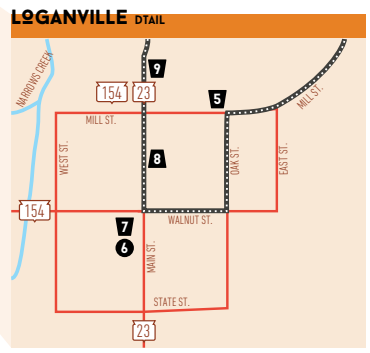

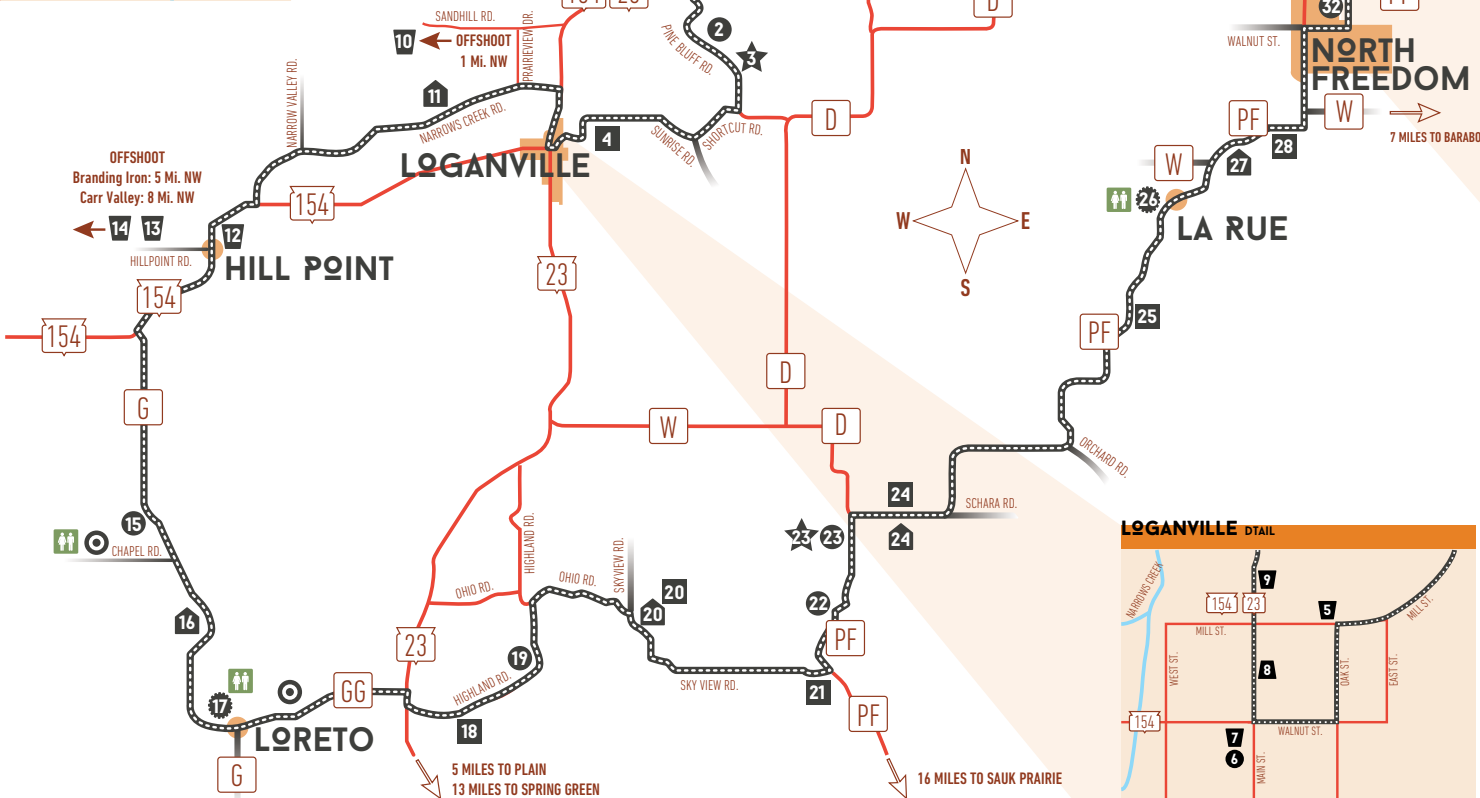

HQ
FOR THE MOST UP-TO-DATE INFORMATION, CHANGES
AND DAILY SPECIALS, BEGIN HERE!

- ### KEY TO DTour STOPS
- ART WORK: Installations created by invited professional artists
 - FARM FORM: Creations by farmers, landowners, area businesses and community groups
 - FIELD NOTES: Rural culture education sites
 - PASTURE PERFORMANCE STAGE: Performances take place here each weekend day
 - FOOD CHAIN: A marketplace of food, art and ideas
 - ATTRACTION: Places to play and explore along the route
 - VENDOR: Places to shop and eat along the route
 - POINT OF INTEREST

LEGEND

- DTour Route
- Town Road Intersections
- State Roads & County Highways
- Restrooms
- Parking
- Wayside

5 MILES TO PLAIN
13 MILES TO SPRING GREEN
16 MILES TO SAUK PRAIRIE

FARM/ART DTour STOPS 2015

HQ START HERE
LOCATION:
REEDSBURG AREA CHAMBER
OF COMMERCE, 240 RAILROAD ST.

The Reedsburg Area Chamber of Commerce is your Fermentation Fest Headquarters.

1 Art Work: Lucky 13: Elephant in the Room

Created by: Erika Nelson, Lucas, Kan.

Celebrating Ringling Brothers and Barnum & Bailey's announcement that they are retiring the last 13 performing elephants by 2018, Lucky 13 addresses the topics we don't want to talk about. The illuminated lantern-like form serves as tribute and release of long-standing icons of the circus industry.

Erika Nelson explores the fringes of art and culture as found in offbeat roadside attractions. When not traveling the U.S. in a permanently embellished vehicle, she can be found in the eccentric art town of Lucas, Kansas. worldslargestthings.com

Landowner: Sauk County Farm

Sauk County Farm, purchased in 1871, provided care and services for people in need. Residents lived and worked on the farm. Over the years dedicated county employees worked to grow a caring environment for Sauk County citizens. In 2009 residents moved to a new facility in West Reedsburg.

2 Art Work: Monday is Wash Day
Created by: Brenda Baker, Madison

Created with clothing and accompanying stories of the people of rural Wisconsin, Monday is Wash Day celebrates this historical and undervalued part of rural life while drawing attention to its environmental benefits and its beauty.

Brenda Baker hangs her family's laundry whenever possible, paints and makes site-specific sculpture referencing the cultural geography of the places she inhabits. Baker splits her time between art, restoration at her farm and overseeing the exhibit and sustainability programs at Madison Children's Museum.

Landowner: Clack Farms, LLC

3 Pasture Performance: Stage A

A variety of short performances will take place here both Saturdays and Sundays of the Fest. For performance details visit fermentationfest.com.

Landowner: Clack Farms, LLC

4 Field Notes: Land
Landowner: Robert Bergman

Bob's family has been farming in the area since the 1800s. Bob has been on his home farm his entire life, working the land for 59 years. He, his wife Janis and son Jason raise crops and beef cattle.

5 Vendor: St. Peter's Lutheran Church
The Shepherd Café, F-Sat, 10 a.m.-4 p.m.,
Sun, 11 a.m.-4 p.m., M-Th 10 a.m.-2 p.m.
325 Mill St. Loganville, 608-727-3721
stpetersloganville.org

Satisfy your taste buds with HOMEMADE soups/sandwiches, vegetarian selections and desserts. LOCALLY GROWN products and HANDCRAFTED items available to purchase. Handicap accessible.

6 Art Work: Flood
Created by: Molly Rideout, Grinnell, Iowa

In June 2008 the Midwest saw the worst rains in years. In parts of Sauk County, people canoed down their streets. Installed on glass windows in the communities affected most, Flood is a story told in four parts about deluges big and small, some fictional, some true and some a little bit of both.

Molly Rideout is a writer and artist originally from Madison now living in Grinnell, Iowa. Her writing has been installed on the glass windows of Midwestern communities big and small. mollyrideout.com

Landowner: Gilbert & Jean Burmester

Built in 1915, the Loganville Bank operated until 2008. Local history buffs Gilbert and Jean purchased the building in 2011. They also own one of the last remaining Klondike Trucks, built here in 1929.

7 Vendor: Aunt Ozie's Café
DTour Hrs: M-Tu, 10 a.m.-4 p.m.
W-Sat, 8 a.m.-7 p.m., Sun, 8 a.m.-2 p.m.
200 Main St, Loganville, 608-727-2868

An eclectic café specializing in delicious food made from scratch located in Loganville's original General Store. Find specials and events posted on Aunt Ozie's Facebook page.

8 Attraction: Loganville History Museum
Visit Historic Grocery Store

M-F, 9 a.m.-5 p.m.,
Sat, 9 a.m.-4 p.m., Sun, 11 a.m.-4 p.m.
145 Main St, Loganville, 608-727-2227

See photos & artifacts from 150 years of Loganville history including Hops Industry, Fire Dept, Church & Village life. Located in Judd Realty. Stop for free ice cream cone!

9 Vendor: Ho-chunk Alumni Association
Oct. 2 & Oct. 5-9, 10 a.m.-2 p.m.

Oct. 3-4 & Oct. 10-11, 10 a.m.-4 p.m.
Contact: Joyce Warner, 608-548-5128 or
Calvin Whiteagle, 608-843-0067

Taste the flavors of Native American foods and see the artists' beautiful artwork. Traditional dances in colorful regalia both Saturdays and Sundays of the Fest, 1-2 p.m. Buy Native—Buy Local.

10 Vendor: Tobey's Sand Hill Fiber Farm
Co-host: New Haven Naturals

Open daily, 10 a.m.-6 p.m.
E5349A Sand Hill Rd, Reedsburg, 608-415-2351

We make quality items from our homegrown wool and sell Ghana baskets. Come see our animals! New Haven Naturals makes natural bath and body products along with raising honeybees.

11 Farm Form: Gallery of Stitches
By: Ruth Roecker & Vicky Baumgarten

Visit our colorful display of barn quilts. With golden corn as a backdrop, take a self-guided, up-close tour to see the various quilt patterns and sizes, learn how they are created, and meet the painters. Many quilts will be for sale following the DTour.

Landowners: Dean & Vicky Baumgarten

ROUTE MARKER

These red horizontal signs will guide you along the DTour. For best results: go in numerical order and respect private property. Keep your eyes peeled for the unexpected and enjoy!

SLOW

When you see the yellow DTour signs, slow down and use caution. A stop is coming up within 200 yards. Find a safe place to pull onto the shoulder.

STOP

You've arrived at a DTour stop! The number on the red sign corresponds with the stops listed on pages 12-15. Again, please use extra caution.

OFFSHOOT

These orange horizontal signs will guide you to our "Offshoot" stops (Map Stops No. 10, 13, 14, 29 and 36). These stops are located a little way off the official DTour route, but are worth the trip!

POP-UP

Watch for these yellow flags along the route. They mark interesting pop-up roadside vendors, attractions and events.

12 Vendor: Neumann's Bar & Grill
Enjoy drinks on the deck!
 Open at 11 a.m. daily
56082 State Road 154, Hill Point, 608-727-2060
 Neumann's Bar & Grill has a full menu and is featuring pulled pork sandwiches from premium meats, loaded baked potatoes and soup for the Farm/Art DTour. We look forward to seeing you!

13 Vendor: Branding Iron Roadhouse
Good Food, Friends and Drinks
 Open at 12 p.m. daily, 132 S Main St., Lime Ridge
 The Branding Iron is a unique country Roadhouse serving delicious burgers made from locally grown beef & other locally grown foods. Wisconsin microbrews on tap. brandingironrh.com

14 Vendor: Carr Valley Cheese
Artisan Cheese Plant and Store
 DTour Hrs: M-Sat, 7 a.m.-5 p.m., Sun, 11 a.m.-4 p.m.
53797 Cty Rd G, La Valle, 800-462-7258
carrvalleycheese.com
 Master cheese makers turn milk fresh from local farms into more than 100 delicious varieties—many international award winners. All varieties available for sale.

15 Art Work: Tree from Within
Created by: Peter Krsko, Washington DC
Tree From Within reflects on our relationship with trees. Visitors are invited to step into a carved space within a dense pile of branches and examine these majestic organisms, valuable members of our ecosystem, from an unusual point of view.

Peter Krsko finds and strengthens relationships within natural and social communities by nurturing positive interactions among their members through scientific research, public art and participatory installations. peterkrsko.com

Landowner: McCluskey Brothers
 McCluskey Brothers-Shillelagh Glen Farms 100% grass fed, organic family farm producing cheese, maple syrup and beef. Also includes Drea's Bar, formerly run by Larry Drea for 63 years! Kevin, Brian, Patrick & Mary Ellen are fourth generation on the farm.

Point of interest:
Our Lady of the Fields Chapel

16 Farm Form: Farmhenge
Created by: Harlan Ferstl, Milwaukee, and McCluskey Brothers

Large machinery and natural farm products have been arranged into a structure reminiscent of Celtic Stone Circles.

Landowner: McCluskey Brothers
 See Map Stop No. 15.

17 Food Chain I.
A Marketplace of Food, Art and Ideas
Location: St. Patrick's Catholic Church
Fri, Oct. 2-Sun, Oct. 11,
Hours: F-Su, 10 a.m.-4 p.m.,
M-Th, 10 a.m.-2 p.m.

Landowner: St. Patrick's Church
 Our first mass was celebrated Oct. 28, 1888, with local Irish families in the area. The current church continues to serve our rural faith community.

Point of interest:
White Mound County Park

18 Field Notes: Corn

19 Art Work: Land Chimes
Created by: Joshua Lantzy and Jamie Topper, Chicago, Ill.

Land Chimes is an invitation to experience the landscape in an entirely new way—through sound. Vertical chimes rise out of the ground, the pitch of each chime determined by the slope of the land below. Visitors are invited to walk among the instruments, strike the chimes and enjoy the musical footprint of the land.
 Cargocollective.com/Lantzy;
 Cargocollective.com/JamieTopper

Landowner: Eileen Schutz
 Eileen's late husband, Ken, grew up on this 175-acre farm. Eileen and Ken bought the farm in 1968 and raised six children here, while running both dairy and beef operations. Eileen now rents her fields to neighbors.

20 Field Notes: Soil

20 Farm Form: Soil Quilt
Created by: Erin Schneider, the Soil & Friends

Celebrate the International Year of Soil by honoring local soils. Experience what happens when soil microbes 'paint' and how curiosity and connection to place are stitched together by local farmers as part of a Soil Quilt.

Landowner: Steve & Jerilyn Johnson
 Steve and Jerilyn have lived on their property for 17 years and share it with their three daughters Raquel, Kaitlyn and Karissa, and their son-in-law Joey, enjoying the land for recreational use.

21 Field Notes: Wetland
Landowner: Wisconsin Society for Ornithology

The Wisconsin Society for Ornithology is a volunteer, nonprofit organization that was established in 1939. Its mission is to promote the enjoyment, study and conservation of Wisconsin's birds.

22 Art Work: An Axe to Grind
Created by: Baraboo Range Preservation Association, Baraboo

Baraboo Range Preservation Association is a Wisconsin land trust working to protect the quality of life for human and natural communities. Executive Director Todd Persche, formally trained as an artist, leads a team of volunteers in removing invasive species from the local forests.

Reconnecting people to the land is a theme of BRPA's educational outreach programs. This installation will highlight the qualities of a healthy forest, free from non-native plants, in all its autumn splendor. For more info, visit Baraboo Range on Facebook or baraboorange.org

Landowner: Wisconsin Society for Ornithology See Map Stop No. 21

23 Pasture Performance: Stage B
 A variety of short performances will take place here both Saturdays and Sundays of the Fest. For performance details visit fermentationfest.com.

23 Art Work: Ghost Barn
Created by: Sarah West & Christopher Field, Mt. Sterling, Ky.

Ghost Barn is based on the lines and architectural forms of rural Wisconsin barns and is dependent on natural wind currents to animate its large, billowing, fabric shape. They imagine this project as an architectural fragment of the memories and histories of this place and encourage visitors to enter.

A sculptor/installation artist and an interactive new media artist, their work includes large-scale, site-specific structures, interactive video and audio installations and complex fabric sculptures. wfieldworkshop.com

Landowner: Ed & Gloria Meyer
 Ed's mother Theresa was born at this farmstead in 1896. Ed and Gloria bought the home farm from his parents in 1967 where they milked 40 cows and also raised steers, pigs and crops.

24 Farm Form: Field Billiards
Created by: Wilkinson & Ramsey families

Hay bales painted as billiard balls and recycled utility poles for cue sticks sit atop a green hay field. See the giant billiard table, sit on an antique tractor, and enjoy farm life at our petting zoo.

24 Field Notes: Dairy
Landowners: Larry & Tina Wilkinson

Larry milks 50 organic Jersey cows, Tina milks 80 Holsteins, and boy, do our border collies get a workout trying to keep up! Stop by our tent and we'll be happy to tell you all about dairy farming.

FARM/ART DTour STOPS 2015

25 Field Notes: Apples
Landowner: The Nature Conservancy
The Nature Conservancy, a private, nonprofit conservation organization dedicated to protecting the land and water on which all life depends, has been active in the Baraboo Hills since 1964.

26 Food Chain II
A Marketplace of Food, Art and Ideas
Location: Lawrence & Wanda Klingemeyer Memorial Park, La Rue
Fri, Oct. 2–Sun, Oct. 11
Hours: F–Su, 10 a.m.–4 p.m., M–Th, 10 a.m.–2 p.m.

Landowner: LaDell Shimniok
LaDell's late husband Raymond's grandparents farmed on what became the Baraboo Ammunitions Plant, were evicted and resettled nearby in the '40s. LaDell and her son Mark raise hay, corn and beans.

27 Farm Form: Red Piano Project
Created by: Reedsburg ArtsLink
Magnificent American-made upright pianos were once central to family entertainment, but now most have become mere relics. This one gets an encore performance—with you as the performer. Sponsored by Able Trek Tours.

Landowner: Dick & Jane Dana

28 Field Notes: Bluff
Landowner: Kevin & Liz Pickar

29 Attraction: Mid-Continent Railway Museum
"Golden Age of Railroadng"
Open daily 9:30 a.m.–5 p.m.
E8948 Diamond Hill Rd, North Freedom
608-522-4261, midcontinent.org
Outdoor, living museum and operating railroad recreating the small town/short line way of life, with operating trains, educational exhibits, and displays of restored rolling stock.

30 Art Work: Flood
Created by: Molly Rideout, Grinnell, Iowa
See Map Stop No. 6

Landowner: Darrell Weiland

31 Vendor: Four Elements
Local organic herbal wellness
M–F, 9 a.m.–4 p.m. Sat–Sun, 10 a.m.–4 p.m.
111 E. Walnut St., North Freedom, 608-522-4492
Beginning with seeds and capturing Nature's healing for your wellbeing. A certified organic farm in the Baraboo Bluffs, Jane has been creating a line of herbal wellness from hand-harvested herbs since 1987.

32 Art Work: ReBoot
Created by: Chris Lutter-Gardella, Minneapolis, Minn.
Chris Lutter's work revolves around the design, construction and performance of puppets, props, costumes, theatrical inventions, kinetic-sets and sculptural installations. He produces art primarily from waste-stream materials.

For 20 years Chris has worked to inspire and facilitate original thinking in the realms of the- at- rical, educational and public-art design with an emphasis on eco-consciousness, resourcefulness, integration and improvisation. Chris created the original Boots for the first DTour and returns to kick off the new route.puppetfarm.org

Landowners: Mark & Elaine Shimniok
Mark and Elaine raise cows, pigs, and crops on their 200-acre diversified farm where Mark's great-grandparents settled in the 1940's after their eviction from what became the Baraboo Army Ammunitions Plant.

33 Farm Form: I Think I Can, I Think I Can
By: Mid-Continent Railway Museum
We salute the rail system for their valuable role in transporting products for the agricultural industry, such as lumber, corn, and soybeans. Rock Springs was an important hub in this area.

Landowner: Golden Needle
Dave and Lynn Zimmerman built Golden Needle in 2005. It provides custom embroidery and screen printing for schools, clubs, and businesses in Sauk County and beyond.

34 Art Work: Flood
Created by: Molly Rideout, Grinnell, Iowa
See Map Stop No. 6

Landowner: Joan Stevens
Joan Stevens, historic preservation artist and graphic designer, has been in business as Stevens Signs for 28 years. She purchased this building, formerly a bank, in 2010.

35 Vendor: Coach House Restaurant & Bar
Tu–Sat, 11 a.m.–9 p.m., Su, 11 a.m.–8 p.m.
114 West Broadway, Rock Springs
608-522-5545
The Coach House is a throwback to the supper clubs made popular in Wisconsin in the 70's. Lunch and Dinner Specials daily. Friendly staff and reasonable prices. Find us on Facebook.

36 Vendor: the byers studio
Handmade Stoneware and Porcelain
Oct 2–11, 10 a.m.–4 p.m.
300 Pine Street Rock Springs, 608-522-5648
Studio of nationally-known ceramic artists Win & Sandra Byers, located in an old school. Wheel-thrown functional stoneware and small sculptural vessels. thebyersstudio.com.

Point of interest: Ableman's Gorge

37 Farm Form: The Color of Agriculture
Created by: Vierbicher and Friede & Associates
For generations farmers have debated the best breed of cattle, the best brand of tractor—it's part of our agricultural heritage. Step up to the cow pen, take in the rainbow of machinery, and decide for yourself!

Landowner: Brian Bender
The operation currently milks 130 cows, but is home to 400 Brown Swiss, Black and White and Red and White Holsteins, Jerseys, and Dairy Dutch Belts. Brian's favorite tractor is International Harvester.

38 Field Notes: Hay
Landowner: Kenneth Nolden

39 Farm Form: A Year in the Life of Corn
Created by: Good Ol' Boys & Their Good Ol' Toys
Raising corn was a whole lot different a half century ago! Visit our display of mid-century implements used to plant, cultivate, and harvest corn, as well as our large collection of antique tractors.

Landowner: Doug Knuth
Doug owns 5 acres of land adjacent to the Reedsburg Industrial Park. The land is home to his private residence and a dedicated wetland area where neighbors pasture cattle.

40 Field Notes: Iron
Landowner: Grede Holdings LLC

41 Art Work: Flood
Created by: Molly Rideout, Grinnell IA
See Map Stop No. 6

Landowner: City of Reedsburg

42 Art Work: Fermentophone
Created by: Joshua Pablo Rosenstock, Somerville, Mass.
Fermentophone is a multi-sensory installation in which an electronic musical composition is performed by living cultures of bacteria and yeast. Visitors are invited to help the artist create (and taste) these edible ferments.

Joshua Pablo Rosenstock's work playfully explores the relationship between humans, technology, and the natural world. He earned an MFA in Art & Technology Studies from the School of the Art Institute of Chicago and is an Associate Professor of Art at Worcester Polytechnic Institute. joshuarosenstock.com

Landowner: LK Design Studio & Photography
LK Design is a small creative agency built on a passion for helping businesses and organizations thrive. We specialize in powerful design, stirring photography and awesomeness.